Senior Warden Gary Elliott presents Hepburn Health CEO, Trish Collocott, with a donation to support the Welfare Program at Clunes Community Health Centre

Clunes Masonic Lodge Lends Support to Local Health Service

Residents of Clunes will benefit from a recent donation by the All Nations Masonic Lodge to support welfare programs at Clunes Community Health Centre.

The Masonic Lodge has for some years been making a donation in support of emergency requirements such as food vouchers and short term accommodation to meet the needs of the local community.

The donation was matched dollar-for-dollar by the United Grand Lodge of Victoria with a total of $600 presented to Trish Collocott, CEO of Hepburn Health.

“This is an invaluable contribution which will provide support for vulnerable people in our community,” said Trish Collocott. “We greatly appreciate the longstanding support of the Clunes Masonic Lodge.”

The cheque was presented by Worshipful Master Ray Jessup and Senior Warden Gary Elliott.

“The staff at Clunes Community Health provide a great service to the Clunes community and we are very pleased to support their work,” said Ray Jessup.
