A8 EMPLOYER/EMPLOYEE OBLIGATIONS

A8.1 The University, as the employer, has the duty to:

- provide a safe workplace and exercise a duty of care; and
- provide appropriate work and professional development while the staff member is employed; and
- provide fair and reasonable remuneration; and
- ensure staff have access to the facilities, policies and procedures necessary to perform their jobs; and

Workplace bullying and other forms of harassment will not be tolerated.

A10 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

A10.1 The University will have and maintain an intellectual property policy that respects and promotes the rights and interests of originators and the University.

A10.2 The policy will address how originators and the University will benefit equitably.

A10.3 The specific manner in which financial returns from the commercial exploitation of intellectual property are delivered to originators and the University will vary depending on the circumstances involved.

A10.4 The University will abide by the principle of moral rights by taking reasonable steps to ensure that:

A10.4.1 the rights of originators to attribution of their work are respected; and

A10.4.2 an originator's right to dissociate herself or himself from the development or embodiment of intellectual property is respected.

A11 MEDICAL EXAMINATION

A11.1 At the discretion of the Director, Human Resources, a staff member appointed to a position in the University may be required to pass a medical examination by a registered medical practitioner in the following circumstances:

A11.1.1 upon commencing employment; and/or

A11.1.2 where the University believes that the range of activities required of the position justifies a regular medical assessment to confirm fitness for duty.

A11.2 Such a report will normally be provided by a medical practitioner nominated by the staff member. The University will meet the costs associated with the provision of this report.

A12 EMPLOYMENT OF INDIGENOUS AUSTRALIANS

A12.1 The University is committed to implementing its Employment Strategy for Indigenous Australians (ESIA) consistent with its strategic objectives and operational needs. The aim of the ESIA is to improve the representation, participation and retention of Indigenous Australian staff members within the University.

A12.2 The University will take active measures to meet the indigenous employment target as set out in the University's Strategic Plan.

A12.3 The University seeks to meet the objectives of clauses A12.1 and A12.2 in the following ways:

- by encouraging and fostering Indigenous Australian employment and participation at all levels of work activity;
- by encouraging and facilitating Indigenous Australian staff members' participation in professional development opportunities and development of their own career strategies and goals; and
- by convening the ESIA Advisory Committee, which monitors and advises on the operation of the ESIA. The membership will include a staff member appointed in accordance with clause A33.1.3 of this Agreement.

A12.4 An Indigenous Language Allowance will be paid to a staff member who is accredited to a fluent level in a recognised Indigenous Australian language by a relevant body and who is required by the University to utilise that language on a regular basis in the course of her/his duties. The allowance has two levels: Level I – elementary level – appropriate for staff members who are capable of using a minimal knowledge of language for basic conversation; and Level II – advanced level – representing a level of ability for the ordinary purpose of general business, formal conversation, reading and writing. Part time staff will be paid on a pro rata basis. The amounts payable are set out in Schedule 4.

A13 SUPERVISORS

A13.1 [Supervisor training] A staff member who is appointed to a position with supervisory responsibilities will be required to undertake appropriate training unless agreed otherwise on the basis that the staff member demonstrates evidence of recent equivalent training/experience.

A13.2 [Academic staff] The supervisor of an academic staff member will normally be the Dean or Deputy Dean of the School in which the staff member is employed. An academic staff member may request the nomination of an alternative supervisor.

A14 SALARY

A14.1 [Salary Increases] The University will pay a salary increase to all staff members bound by this Agreement, as per the following instalments and dates:

3.0%	12 July 2014*
3.0%	11 July 2015*
3.0%	09 July 2016*
3.0%	08 July 2017*
*first day of the first full pay period on or after 30 June

[Bonus] A single one off bonus payment of $500 (gross) will be made to each eligible academic and professional staff member (pro rata payment for part-time staff to a minimum payment of $300 (gross)) and a flat payment of $200 (gross) for eligible casual staff members. This payment will be made in the first available pay period on or after 30 June 2014.

An eligible staff member is: a continuing or fixed term staff member who is employed on the date of the result of the staff ballot and at the time of the payment of the bonus; or a current casual staff member with more than 12 months regular service prior to the date of the result of the staff ballot and who has worked 200 hours or more over this period.

A14.2 [Rates of Pay]

A14.2.1 [Full-time staff] The rates of pay for full-time staff will be as specified in the relevant tables in Schedules 1 and 2 (professional staff) and Schedule 5 (academic staff) of this Agreement.

A14.2.2 [Casual staff] The rates of pay for casual employees will be as specified in Schedule 3 (casual professional staff) and Schedule 7 (casual academic staff) of this Agreement.

A14.2.3 [Part-time staff] Part-time staff will be paid pro rata based on the appropriate full-time salary.

A14.3 [Supported Salary Rate for a staff member with a disability]

Nothing in this Agreement will prevent the full operation of the 'Supported Wage System' which is the Commonwealth Government System to promote employment for people who are unable to perform, because of a disability, the range of duties to the competence level required within the classification level for which the staff member is engaged. This System is documented in the University's policy on 'Supported Wage System for Staff with a Disability'.

A staff member who is eligible for a supported salary under this clause will be paid either the percentage of the relevant base salary for the classification level in which the person is engaged which corresponds to the assessed percentage of capacity (10 -90 percent) or 10 percent of the prescribed salary rate, whichever is the greater.

A14.4 [Salary Payment] Salaries will be paid fortnightly by means of electronic funds transfer.

A14.5 [Salary Sacrifice]

A14.5.1 A staff member may request that part of her/his salary be used to provide benefits on a salary sacrifice basis.

A14.5.2 Participating staff members will be subject to the University's published criteria for salary sacrifice, including notice of entry and withdrawal from the salary sacrifice scheme.

A14.5.3 Where legislative or other changes result in an increased cost to the University or to staff arising from the arrangements provided under this clause, the University may elect to discontinue the arrangements as soon as practicable unless the staff members agree to pay the additional costs, in which case the University will continue the option.

A14.5.4 Notwithstanding A14.5.1, the salary rates specified in the schedules to this Agreement or such higher rate as has been identified as superannuable and specified in the staff member's contract of employment will be used as the basis for calculating the following:

- termination payments including superannuation, annual recreation leave and long service leave;
- redundancy or early retirement benefits;
- overtime and shift payments;

- loadings, allowances and deductions which are calculated as a percentage of salary; and
- workers' compensation benefits.

A14.6 [Deductions from salaries] Upon receipt of a written authority from a staff member, deductions from salaries for approved purposes such as health insurance and union dues will be made from that staff member's pay and such amount remitted to the relevant organisation. Staff members may request in writing at any time that a deduction cease.

A15 SUPERANNUATION

A15.1 [UniSuper Pty Ltd] For the life of the Agreement, the University will maintain the superannuation contributions and arrangements in place as at the date of certification of the Agreement. UniSuper Pty Ltd will continue to be the sole fund for employer contributions for all current and new staff except as provided for under the terms of its Trust Deed or the Deed of Covenant with the University or as provided for in A15.2.

A15.2 [Other schemes] The University will continue with arrangements and entitlements in place immediately prior to the commencement of this Agreement for those staff who, at that time, were members of superannuation schemes other than UniSuper Pty Ltd.

A15.3 [Employee contributions] All staff will be required to make such employee contributions as may be required by the scheme to which their contributions are allocated in accordance with A15.1 and A15.2.

A16 RECREATION LEAVE LOADING

Each calendar year, all staff members, excluding casual staff, will be entitled to a recreation leave loading payment based on the number of completed months' service and the period of leave accrued within that year. This payment will be equal to 17.5 per cent of salary on leave accrued at the salary rate applicable on the last pay day of that calendar year, subject to a maximum payment. This maximum will be in accordance with criteria published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics in the August quarter preceding the date of accrual (for staff serving the full year) or in the August quarter of the preceding year for staff whose employment terminates prior to 31 December in any year.

A17 INCAPACITY INTERIM SUPPORT PAYMENTS

A17.1 [Staff applying for Incapacity] The University will ensure that with respect to an incapacity application, interim support payments made to a staff member will be equivalent to the level of Temporary Incapacity Pension paid by the Superannuation Fund (i.e. normally 60 percent of the staff member's salary). This will be paid for a period of 13 weeks (inclusive of personal/carer's leave) or until the application for incapacity is determined by the Superannuation Fund, whichever is the earlier.

A17.2 [Journey Accident Insurance] The University will maintain insurance which will insure staff members who are injured as a result of an accident on their way to and from work for loss of earnings.

A18 JURY SERVICE

Where a staff member is required to undertake jury service, special leave with pay will be approved. Should the period of jury service exceed 20 working days, the staff member will be required to repay the University any fees received for such service, less any expenses incurred.

A19 LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

A19.1 Leave without pay will not normally be granted for periods in excess of two (2) years.

A19.2 Notwithstanding A19.1, a staff member may apply for up to (3) years' leave without pay to undertake full-time study.

A19.3 Applications for leave without pay exceeding 20 working days per calendar year will only be approved where it can be demonstrated that the arrangement will have long-term benefits for the University and/or the arrangement will not be detrimental to the area concerned. Such leave may also be approved on compassionate grounds.

A19.4 [Effect on Leave Accrual and Salary Increments] Leave without pay approved on academic or professional grounds will count as service for both long service leave purposes and salary increment purposes, provided that the staff member returns to the University for an equivalent period. All other entitlements will cease to accrue during leave without pay.

A19.5 Leave without pay approved on other than academic or professional grounds will not count as service for all leave entitlements or salary increment purposes unless the University determines otherwise.

A20 LONG SERVICE LEAVE

A20.1 [Entitlement] The University will provide for long service leave in accordance with this clause for all members of staff. These provisions operate to the exclusion of and prevail completely over the Long Service Leave Act, 1987 (SA) (as amended).

A20.1.1 Staff members accrue long service leave in hours at the rate of 47.78 hours (equivalent to 6.5 working days) for each completed year of service, pro rata for part-time staff.

A20.1.2 Staff employed by SACAE at the time of the merger with the University (1 January 1991) will accrue leave at the rate specified in A20.1.1 but increasing to 79.38 hours (equivalent to 10.8 working days) per year, pro rata for part-time staff, after 15 years of service.

A20.2 [Continuity of service] For the purposes of this clause only, continuity of service will not be affected by breaks of service as outlined in the long service leave policy and procedures.

A20.3 [Eligibility to take long service leave] A staff member will be eligible to take an initial period of long service leave upon accruing an entitlement to 334.43 hours (equivalent to 45.5 working days), pro rata for part-time staff, which is normally equivalent to seven (7) years' continuous paid service, and to take subsequent periods of long service leave when that staff member has accumulated an entitlement to 36.75 hours (equivalent to five (5) working days), pro rata for part-time staff.

A20.4 [Minimum period of service with the University] Notwithstanding A20.3, a staff member will be required to serve at least (3) years with the University before being permitted to take accrued long service leave or to receive payment in lieu of long service leave accrued, unless the University determines otherwise.

A20.5 [Recognising prior service] Prior continuous paid service, where recognised by the releasing employer as carrying entitlement to long service leave, will normally be recognised in accordance with A20.6 to A20.11, subject to there being no break of eight (8) weeks or more between service at Flinders University and the staff member's relevant prior appointment. Recognition of prior service does not apply to casual staff.

A20.6 [Australian universities] The University will recognise prior continuous paid service within other Australian universities towards long service leave entitlement.

A20.7 [Other higher education institutions] The University will recognise prior continuous paid service within Australian higher education institutions other than universities for staff members taking up appointment within the University on or after 1 June 1988.

A20.8 [Other organisations] For staff members taking up appointment within the University on or after 13 December 1991, the University will also recognise all prior continuous paid service within the following organisations:

- South Australian Public Service;
- Commonwealth Public Service;

- Universities Australia and its predecessor body; and
- other inter-university bodies, and South Australian Statutory Authorities.

Prior service with these organisations will not accrue a long service leave entitlement but will be considered as qualifying service for determining when the staff member is eligible to take long service leave.

- A20.9 If a staff member has been paid in lieu of long service leave or has taken long service leave prior to commencing appointment at the University, this period of leave will be deducted from any entitlement due or service recognised.
- A20.10 [Fixed-term appointments] Recognition of prior service will not apply to staff members on fixed-term appointments funded from external sources which make no provision for the transfer of long service leave credits from one institution to another.
- A20.11 [Application for recognition of prior service] New staff members seeking recognition of prior service with previous employers must do so, in writing, within six (6) months of commencing employment at the University.
- A20.12 [Payment while on long service leave] Payment for long service leave will be at the staff member's ordinary rate of pay.
- A20.13 [Application and approval] In advance of any long service leave being taken, all staff must, in a manner decided by the University, apply for and obtain approval from their supervisor for the taking of any period of long service leave. A staff member who has accumulated excess leave may be directed by her/his supervisor to take leave within a reasonable time period, as provided for in clause A20.16.
- A20.14 [Half-pay] A staff member may apply to take long service leave on half pay.
- A20.15 [Minimum period] The minimum period of long service leave which can be taken is a single day.
- A20.16 [Management of excess long service leave]
- A20.16.1 [Plan for taking long service leave] Where a staff member's entitlement exceeds 65 days (477.75 hours) she/he will be required to provide a plan for taking long service leave, to be agreed with the University.
- A20.16.2 [Direction to take long service leave] Where a staff member has reached an accumulated entitlement exceeding 80 working days (588 hours), pro rata for part-time staff, and has not complied with A20.16.1, the University may direct that staff member to take long service leave, within a reasonable time period, so as to reduce the accumulated entitlement to 65 working days or below (477.75 hours), pro rata for part-time staff.
- A20.17 [Conversion of long service leave to personal/carer's leave] Where a staff member becomes ill while on long service leave for a period of not less than three (3) consecutive working days, she/he will, subject to the availability of personal/carer's leave and the production of a medical certificate for the period of illness, be credited with these periods of time which may be taken as personal/carer's leave instead. The ability to convert long service leave to personal/carer's leave is not available where the absence immediately precedes retirement.
- A20.18 [Employment during long service leave] A member of staff will not undertake any employment for hire or reward during a period of long service leave.
- A20.19 [Payment in lieu of long service leave] Payment in lieu of long service leave accrued but not taken will be made where:
- A20.19.1 a staff member has become eligible to take long service leave and resigns, or the staff member's employment terminates except for any reason other than serious misconduct; or

A20.19.2 where not less than five (5) years of service carrying entitlement to long service leave has been completed and the staff member dies, or is considered by the relevant superannuation body to be totally and permanently incapacitated, or is declared redundant under the relevant redundancy provisions of this Agreement.

A20.20 [Cash-out of excess long service leave] Cash-out of long service leave entitlement in excess of 334.43 hours (equivalent to 45.5 working days), pro rata for part-time staff, may be taken subject to supervisor approval and to:

A20.20.1 a minimum block of five (5) working days' long service leave being taken in conjunction with the cash-out; and

A20.20.2 a plan being submitted and approved to reduce entitlement to below 334.43 hours (45.5 working days), pro rata for part-time staff. For academic staff this may include being required to attach a period of long service leave to an Outside Studies or Overseas Conference absence; and A20.20.3 a maximum cash-out of four (4) weeks' long service leave at any one (1) time.

A21 PARENTAL LEAVE

A21.1 [Eligibility and entitlement] Any full-time or part-time staff member who completes 12 months or more of continuous service with the University before the expected date of birth or placement of a child is entitled to 52 weeks' parental leave, comprised as follows:

Type	Paid Component	Unpaid Component
Maternity	18 weeks	34 weeks
Antenatal	8 days*	-
Adoption	18 weeks	34 weeks
Adoption (pre-placement)	-	5 days*
Partner	1 week at the time of the birth or adoption	51 weeks, provided the partner is the certified primary care-giver of the child
Medically defined late pregnancy miscarriage or stillbirth.	6 weeks	46 weeks

* (leave accrual will be in hours and will be pro rata for part-time staff)

A21.2 A staff member who completes 12 months of continuous service with the University during the first 18 or 6 weeks of paid absence respectively (as prescribed in the table above) is entitled to payment from the date of completion of the 12 months' service for the balance of the 18 or 6 weeks' absence. The remainder of the 52 weeks' parental leave will be unpaid.

A21.3 A staff member who has been employed by the University for a continuous period of less than 12 months at the expected date of birth or adoption is entitled to 52 weeks' unpaid maternity leave. A staff member who does not meet the 12 month service requirement is not entitled to partner or adoption leave, but may apply for leave without pay under the University's normal provisions for such leave.

A21.4 [Casual staff] Casual staff who are eligible under section 67(2) of the Fair Work Act are entitled to Parental Leave under this clause on an unpaid basis only. All casual staff members must comply with the requirements of A21.8 with respect to working before the expected birth and resuming employment afterwards.

A21.5 [Transfer to safe job] Where illness or risks arising out of pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the pregnant employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue in her present duties, the duties will be modified or the employee may be transferred to a safe position at the same classification level until the commencement of maternity leave.

A21.6 [Both partners employed by University] Where both partners are employed by the University and wish to take parental leave, they will be eligible to take up to eight (8) weeks unpaid parental leave at the same time in addition to the one (1) week's paid leave at the time of birth or adoption. The combined period of each partner's leave must not exceed 52 weeks.

- A21.7 [Interruption of parental leave] Entitlement to parental leave does not depend on that leave being continuous. A staff member who, for any reason, returns to work after taking less than the full entitlement for maternity or adoption leave (either paid or unpaid) may apply to take the balance of the leave later within the 52 week period.
- A21.8 [Maternity leave] A medical certificate of fitness for work from a registered medical practitioner or a certificated midwife must be provided if the staff member wishes to remain at work within the six (6) weeks prior to the expected date of birth or recommence duties within the first six (6) weeks after the birth.
- A21.9 [Antenatal leave] Antenatal leave is available during the pregnancy and up to the time of commencing maternity leave for reasons associated with the pregnancy.
- A21.10 [Adoption leave, pre-placement] Unpaid leave pre-dating the child's placement is available to a staff member to attend interviews, workshops, court attendances or medical examinations required for the purpose of adopting a child. Where both partners are employed by the University, this leave is available to each staff member at the same time.
- A21.11 [Partner leave] Partner leave associated with maternity leave ceases on the child's first birthday. Partner leave associated with adoption leave ceases 52 weeks after the date of placement.
- A21.12 [Employment during paid parental leave] A staff member will not be permitted to engage in University employment for additional payment during any period of paid parental leave, including parental leave on half-pay.
- A21.13 [Payment for paid parental leave] Payment for parental leave will be at the staff member's ordinary rate of pay and will be subject to adjustments for salary increments or increases during the period of paid leave.
- A21.14 [Half-pay] Paid maternity or adoption leave may be taken on half pay, in which case the period of paid leave will be doubled. All entitlements will accrue at the appropriate pro rata rate during this period. The maximum period of 52 weeks' total leave available will not be altered or extended by this arrangement.
- A21.15 [Other leave] Annual recreation leave and long service leave may be taken as part of the unpaid portion of parental leave. Personal/carer's leave may not be taken during a period of parental leave.
- A21.16 [Continuity of service] Employment in the University (excluding casual service) where breaks in service do not exceed eight (8) weeks is recognised as continuous service for the purposes of this clause. Although not breaking continuity of service, the actual period of any such break(s) in service will not count as service for the purposes of A21.1.
- A21.17 [Continuous service] For the purposes of this clause, continuous service means a period of uninterrupted paid service with the University.
- A21.18 Any period of paid parental leave will count as service with the University for all purposes.
- A21.19 Any period of unpaid parental leave will not count as service for any purpose but will not break the staff member's continuity of service.
- A21.20 [Return to work] A staff member who returns to work after a period of parental leave can expect to resume her/his previous position. If that position is unavailable, the staff member will be transferred to another position appropriate to her/his classification and salary.
- A21.21 [Effect on fixed-term employment] The operation of this clause will not extend the original term of a staff member's fixed-term appointment (irrespective of the source of funds).
- A21.22 [Support options for return to work] A staff member who is the certified primary care-giver of the child will be entitled to seek support on her/his return to work from parental leave in order to balance work and family responsibilities.

A21.23 Support for return to work will take the form of either subsidised salary to a maximum of 0.4 of substantive salary, including all leave entitlements and superannuation calculated on the basis of the salary paid, for a period of 16 weeks (all staff), or financial support (academic staff only) of up to $7,000 (pro rata for part-time staff).

A21.24 [Training] Appropriate training will be provided to a staff member returning to work from an extended period of parental leave.

A21.25 [Extension of parental leave] A staff member may request an extension of unpaid parental leave for a further period of up to 12 months immediately following the end of the available parental leave period, in accordance with section 76 of the Fair Work Act.

A22 PUBLIC HOLIDAYS AND UNIVERSITY CLOSURE

A22.1 [Entitlement] Staff members are entitled to any day gazetted as a public holiday or proclaimed by the Governor of South Australia as a public holiday throughout the whole of the State.

Staff members are entitled to an additional day to be observed as a public holiday during the University closure period, the actual day to be advised in advance by the University, in accordance with any day determined by the appropriate (Australian) Public Service agency under the relevant Act.

A22.2 [University closure] The University will be closed between (and including) Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

A22.3 [Work on public holiday] A staff member may be requested to attend for the whole or part of any day which is to be observed as a public holiday as prescribed by this clause. Other than in an emergency, the University will give seven (7) days' notice to any staff member requested to attend for duty on a public holiday.

A22.4 [Flinders Press] The University may require the closure of Flinders Press for an additional period, up to a maximum of four (4) weeks, immediately following the University closure period. Staff of Flinders Press will be notified at least one (1) month in advance of such a closure and will be required to take accrued leave or leave without pay at this time.

A23 EMERGENCY SERVICES LEAVE

The University may approve paid leave to staff members who are members of emergency services organisations and who are required for emergency duty during working hours.

A24 SPECIAL PAID LEAVE

A24.1 [Definition] For the purposes of these provisions, a 'family member' means:

- A24.1.1 an immediate relative by blood, marriage, adoption, fostering, traditional kinship (including guardian, ward, grandparent, foster-grandparent, step-grandparent, and in-law relative); or
- A24.1.2 a person who stands in a bona fide domestic or household relationship with a staff member including situations in which there is implied some dependency or support role for the staff member.

A24.2 [Entitlement] A staff member is entitled to the hourly equivalent of a total of five (5) days per year of Special Paid Leave to cover any or all of the following:

- the death of a family member; and/or
- attendance at an unforeseen emergency situation necessitating immediate personal action; and/or
- maintenance of kinship/community links by an Australian Indigenous staff member to ensure currency of Australian Indigenous knowledge; and / or
- participation in, or fulfilment of, cultural obligations and/or celebration of religious and cultural national days related to the culture with which the staff member or family member identifies; and/or

- dealing with matters arising from or as a result of family or domestic violence; and/or
- any other special circumstance as approved by the Director, Human Resources.

A24.3 [Part-time staff members] will be entitled to Special Paid Leave on a pro rata basis.

A24.4 [Fixed entitlement] Leave under this clause is a fixed entitlement and does not accumulate from year to year if unused.

A24.5 [Minimum period of leave] A minimum of one (1) hour applies to Special Paid Leave.

A24.6 [Evidence] A staff member who has taken leave under this clause must, if required to do so by the University, provide evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave has been taken for a reason specified in accordance with clause A24.2.

A25 PERSONAL/CARER'S AND COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

A25.1 [Definitions] For the purpose of these provisions:

- 'personal illness' means that a person is unfit for duty and includes personal injury but does not include any injury for which compensation is payable under the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act, 1986 (SA) as amended.
- 'family member' means:
 - an immediate relative by blood, marriage, adoption, fostering, traditional kinship (including guardian, ward, grandparent, foster-grandparent, step-grandparent, and in-law relative); or
 - a person who stands in a bona fide domestic or household relationship with a staff member including situations in which there is implied some dependency or support role for the staff member.

A25.2 [Paid personal/carer's leave] applies to staff members other than casual staff members.

A25.3 [Entitlement to paid personal/carer's leave] A staff member is entitled to 110.25 hours (equivalent to 15 working days) per completed year of service, pro rata for part-time staff. This entitlement accrues progressively throughout the year and accumulates from year to year. Notwithstanding this, upon commencing employment each staff member will be entitled to apply for up to the hourly equivalent of six (6) working days of her/his personal/carer's leave entitlement (or pro rata equivalent) in advance of entitlement.

A25.4 [Taking paid personal/carer's leave] A staff member may take paid personal/carer's leave if the leave is taken:

A25.4.1 because the staff member is not fit for work because of a personal illness or personal injury affecting her/him;
or

A25.4.2 to provide care or support to a member of the staff member's family who requires care or support because of:

- a personal illness, or personal injury, affecting that person; or
- an unexpected emergency affecting that person.

A25.5 [Personal/carer's leave while on annual recreation leave, long service leave or on public holiday] Where a public holiday falls during a period of personal/carer's leave, no deduction will be made from a staff member's personal/carer's leave credits for the public holiday. If a staff member takes personal/carer's leave of three (3) days or more whilst on annual recreation or long service leave, this period of time may be recredited and taken as personal/carer's leave instead.

A25.6 [Payment for personal/carer's leave] will be at the staff member's ordinary rate of pay.

A25.7 [Entitlement to unpaid carer's leave] A staff member is entitled to two (2) days of unpaid carer's leave for each occasion (a permissible occasion) when a member of the staff member's family requires care or support because of a personal illness or personal injury affecting that person or an unexpected emergency affecting that person.

A25.7.1 [Taking unpaid carer's leave]

- (i) A staff member may take unpaid carer's leave for a particular permissible occasion as a singular period of up to two (2) days or any separate periods to which the staff member and her/his supervisor agree;
- (ii) Unpaid carer's leave can not be taken during a particular period if instead the staff member could take paid personal/carer's leave.

A25.7.2 [Discretion to convert annual recreation leave and/or long service leave to provide payment during a period of unpaid carer's leave] A staff member accessing unpaid carer's leave for the purposes of this clause A25.7 may apply to take up to two (2) days of her or his accrued entitlement to annual recreation leave or long service leave per occasion.

A25.8 [Entitlement to compassionate leave] A staff member is entitled to two (2) days of compassionate leave for each occasion (a permissible occasion) when a member of the staff member's family:

- (i) contracts or develops a personal illness that poses a serious threat to that person's life; or
- (ii) sustains a personal injury that poses a serious threat to that person's life; or
- (iii) dies.

A25.9 [Taking compassionate leave]

A25.9.1 A staff member may take compassionate leave for a particular permissible occasion if the leave is taken:

- (i) to spend time with the affected person; or
- (ii) after the death of the affected person.

A25.9.2 A staff member may take compassionate leave for a particular permissible occasion as:

- (i) a single continuous two (2) day period; or
- (ii) two (2) separate periods of one (1) day each; or
- (iii) any separate periods to which the staff member and her/his supervisor agree.

A25.9.3 If the permissible occasion is the contraction or development of a personal illness, or the sustaining of a personal injury, the staff member may take the compassionate leave for that occasion at any time while the illness or injury persists.

A25.10 [Payment for compassionate leave] will be at the staff member's ordinary rate of pay. For casual staff members, compassionate leave will be unpaid leave.

A25.11 [Notice and evidence requirements]

A25.11.1 [Notifying the University] A staff member taking leave under this clause must give her/his supervisor notice as soon as possible (which may be at a time after the leave has commenced) and must indicate the period or expected period of the leave.

However, the expectation is that she/he will normally inform the University of her/his inability to attend for duty within 24 hours of normal commencement of duty.

A25.11.2 [Evidence] A staff member who has taken leave under this clause must, if required to do so by the University, provide evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave has been taken for the reason specified in either of clauses A25.4, A25.7 and A25.8.

In the case of:

- (i) [Medical certificate or other relevant evidence] Where an absence exceeds three (3) consecutive working days, a staff member must provide evidence concerning the reason for such leave. Where a medical certificate is provided, it must be signed by a person registered under the Medical Practitioners Act 1983 (as amended). A medical certificate, signed by a registered health practitioner, as approved by the Director, Human Resources, will be accepted in lieu of a certificate from a registered medical practitioner.

- (ii) [Recurring absences] The University may request a staff member with a pattern of recurring and/or frequent absences for leave to provide relevant evidence, such as a medical certificate(s) or other evidence, concerning the reason for any such leave.

A25.12 [Personal/carer's leave not paid out] Personal/Carer's Leave is not paid out on cessation of employment.

A26 ANNUAL RECREATION LEAVE

A26.1 [Entitlement] For each year of service a staff member is entitled to four (4) weeks of paid annual recreation leave (equivalent to 12.25 hours or one and two-thirds working days of paid leave for each completed month of service, pro rata for part-time staff). This entitlement accrues progressively during a year of service according to the employee's ordinary hours of work, and accumulates from year to year.

A26.2 [Professional staff]

A26.2.1 [Application and approval] In advance of any annual recreation leave period sought, all staff must, in a form approved by the University, apply to and obtain approval from their supervisor for the taking of any period of annual recreation leave.

A26.2.2 [Time of taking leave] Annual recreation leave should normally be taken in the year in which it accrues.

A26.3 [Academic staff]

A26.3.1 [Approval and time of taking leave] Annual recreation leave for all academic staff will commence at the time of the end of year University closure each year, for a period of 20 working days, exclusive of public holidays, pro rata for part-time staff. Where a staff member has an accrual of less than 20 days, the University will book the number of whole days accrued and carry forward any remaining fraction.

A26.3.2 [Alternative arrangements for taking leave] Notwithstanding A26.3.1, an academic staff member may, by agreement with her/his supervisor, take annual recreation leave at an alternative time. In advance of an alternative period of annual recreation leave being sought, the staff member must, in a form approved by the University, apply to and obtain approval from her/his supervisor for the taking of this period of annual recreation leave. The University will not unreasonably refuse such an application for leave.

A26.3.3 [Advance alert] The University will remind academic staff about the booking of annual recreation leave and the option to make alternative arrangements, as described in A26.3.1 and A26.3.2. This reminder will normally occur annually in September each year.

A26.3.4 [Review] A review jointly undertaken by the University and the NTEU will assess the application of Clause A26.3 by no later than the nominal expiry date of the Agreement and this Clause will only continue to apply in any new agreement made, if the parties are in agreement that it should so continue.

A26.3.5 [Amendment] The parties agree to amend this Clause within the life of the current agreement should any unintended consequences become apparent that the parties agree require a formal amendment to this Agreement.

A26.4 [Excess accumulated annual recreation leave] A full-time staff member who has accumulated annual recreation leave during any 24 month period in excess of 294 hours (equivalent to 40 working days), pro rata for part-time staff, may be directed to take up to one quarter of her/his accrued leave.

A26.5 [First year of service] During the first year of service, a staff member will not be permitted to take any greater period of annual recreation leave than that accumulated. Subsequently, a staff member may apply to take annual recreation leave in advance of entitlement up to a maximum of one (1) year's accrual.

A26.6 [Conversion to personal/carer's leave] Where a staff member becomes ill for a period of not less than three (3) days while on annual recreation leave, she/he will, subject to the availability of personal/carer's leave credits and the production of a medical certificate for the period of illness, be credited with the annual recreation leave and have the personal/carer's leave debited for the approved number of working days.

A26.7 [Fixed-term staff] Annual recreation leave accrued by a staff member appointed on a fixed-term basis should normally be taken before the cessation date of that contract.

A26.8 [Casual staff] will not be entitled to paid annual recreation leave.

A26.9 [Cash-out of excess annual recreation leave] Where a staff member has accrued in excess of 20 days annual recreation leave he/she may apply to cash-out a particular amount of his/her excess leave on the following basis:

A26.9.1 The minimum numbers of days to be cashed-out is 5 days and each request must be in blocks of 5 days.

A26.9.2 The cash-out of leave must not cause a staff member's balance to fall below 20 days (pro rata for part-time staff).

A26.9.3 Approval of applications for cash-out of excess annual recreation leave are subject to the University's operational requirements.

A26.9.4 Although a staff member may be eligible to apply to cash-out leave, the University has no obligation to grant the request.

A27 STAFF DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

Staff are required to participate in specific orientation and induction training as follows:

A27.1 The Flinders Foundation of University Teaching for all new academic staff;

A27.2 The Postgraduate Research Supervision Program for all academic staff new to the supervision of higher degree research students.

A27.3 The Managing Work-Integrated Learning Workshop, for all staff involved in supervising, leading and managing Work-Integrated Learning including placements and non-placement activities.

A28 INCREMENTAL PROGRESSION

A28.1 Staff members who are in receipt of a salary which is less than the maximum step for their level/classification will be entitled to be considered for annual incremental progression through the steps within their level/classification.

A28.2 [Incremental progression] Progression to the next incremental step is subject to performance in the preceding 12 months being satisfactory.

A28.3 [Delay of an increment] Where a staff member's performance is not at the expected standard, progression to the next step may be delayed to allow for improvement to be achieved. The staff member will be made aware of the supervisor's concerns about under performance and given the opportunity to improve to a satisfactory standard. The maximum deferral period will be six (6) months. If at the end of this period the performance is still not at the expected standard, the matter will be considered in accordance with the formal provisions of the University's discipline provisions for academic or professional staff, whichever are appropriate.

A28.4 [Effect on increment date] Promotion (academic staff), reclassification (professional staff) to a higher level, leave without pay which does not count as service and delay of an increment may alter the staff member's incremental date.

A29 STAFF CONSULTATION

A29.1 [Principle] The University is committed to consulting directly with staff on matters likely to affect their employment.

A29.2 [Consultative Framework] Consultation may take various forms including:

- the web, email systems or area newsletters; and/or
- managers and supervisors consulting with work teams/individuals; and/or
- organisational or functional unit meetings; and/or
- the University Consultative Committee.

A29.3 [University Consultative Committee (UCC)]

A29.3.1 [Purpose] The UCC will be the forum for formal consultation on matters, which may include:

- the implementation of this Agreement
- the further development of initiatives consistent with undertakings given in this Agreement
- matters of significant workplace change as defined in Clause A30.2 of this Agreement.

A29.3.2 [Membership]

- Five (5) staff members nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, one of whom will be Chair.
- Five (5) staff members nominated by the unions who are party to the Agreement, one of whom will be Deputy Chair.

The term of membership is for the term of this Agreement. Casual vacancies will be filled by nomination as appropriate.

A29.3.3 [Meeting schedule] The UCC will meet four (4) times a year unless otherwise agreed.

A30 MANAGING CHANGE

A30.1 [Principle] The University will consult with staff affected by significant change, their representatives as provided for in clause A6 and with the University Consultative Committee (UCC). In the case of redundancy, once a decision has been made, redundancies will be managed in accordance with clause A35.

A30.2 [Definition of significant change] 'Significant change' includes substantial changes in the composition, operation or size of the University work force or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or tenure opportunities; alteration to hours of work and/or regular roster; the restructuring of work areas including restructuring of work areas following a redundancy round; and outsourcing of services.

A30.3 [Consultation about initiating change] Where the University decides to implement a proposed change of the kind referred to in A30.2, it will consult with affected staff members about the need for change and the development of a change process.

A30.4 As part of the consultation process relevant information will be shared with affected staff in a timely manner and will include the reason/s for the proposed change and expected outcomes from it, the proposed timeframe for implementation, potential impact on staff and strategies to mitigate adverse effects from the proposed changes and the timeframe for responses to the proposals.

A30.5 The University will give consideration to views and feedback put forward as part of the consultation process and provide feedback on these matters to affected staff and their representatives before deciding whether to proceed with the proposed change/s either in the original or revised form.

A30.6 [Consultation about implementing change] If a decision is taken to proceed with a significant change proposal, the University will consult with affected staff members and their representatives about the implementation of that change, particularly where the change is likely to have an impact on the work, conditions or career prospects of staff. Such consultations will include means of avoiding detrimental outcomes for affected staff.

A31 DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

A31.1 [Application] A dispute arising from the interpretation, application or operation of any provision of this Agreement, or in relation to the National Employment Standards, may be raised by a staff member, relevant Union, or the University and will be dealt with in accordance with this clause. Parties to the dispute will agree to attempt to resolve matters in a cooperative and timely manner.

A31.2 [Scope] This clause does not apply to any matter arising under this Agreement to the extent that there is an appeals or review process specified in the Agreement.

A31.3 [Initial step] In the first instance, where a dispute is raised by a staff member (and/or the staff member's representative) or a relevant union, she/he/they will take the matter up in writing with the staff member's supervisor or the relevant Executive Dean / Portfolio Head. The supervisor/ Executive Dean / Portfolio Head will consider the matter with a view to resolution and will provide written advice as to the action taken/to be taken regarding the matter. The written advice will normally be provided within five (5) working days of the matter having been raised.

A31.4 [Second step] Where a dispute is not resolved under A31.3 above, at the request of either party to the dispute, the Director, Human Resources, or delegate will, within five (5) working days, unless agreed otherwise convene a meeting between the parties to the dispute in an attempt to conciliate the matter.

A31.5 The Director, Human Resources, or delegate will attempt to resolve the matter within five (5) working days of the first meeting between the parties to the dispute. Any resolution will be in the form of a written agreement subject, if necessary, to ratification by either party.

A31.6 [Referral of dispute to the Fair Work Commission] Should the dispute not be resolved by the processes referred to in A31.3, A31.4 and A31.7, or in exceptional circumstances, the matter may be referred by either party to the dispute to Fair Work Commission (FWC) for resolution.

FWC may deal with the dispute in two stages: FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and if FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, FWC may then arbitrate the dispute and make a determination that is binding on the parties. If FWC arbitrates the dispute it may also use the powers available to it under the Fair Work Act.

Subject to the University or the staff member or union exercising a right of appeal against the decision to the Full Bench of the FWC in accordance with the requirements of the Fair Work Act 2009, a decision of the FWC is binding on the parties to the dispute. Subject to the University or staff member or union exercising a right of appeal or review against the decision to any other Court where jurisdiction is granted, a decision of the Full Bench of the FWC is binding on the parties to the dispute.

A31.7 [Referral of an unresolved dispute to another person or body] Alternatively, where a dispute has not been resolved by the processes referred to in A31.3 or A31.5, or in exceptional circumstances and if the parties to the dispute so agree during that period, the parties may agree to seek assistance from another person or body other than FWC.

Further, a staff member may also submit the same dispute to any other external agency that is competent to handle such matters. In this instance, the matter will be dealt with according to rules and procedures of the external agency concerned and the matter ceases to be a dispute in accordance with this Agreement.

A31.8 [Action pending outcome]

A31.8.1 Until the internal procedures described in A31.3 to A31.5 have been exhausted:

- work will continue in the normal manner, except where the matter under dispute relates to a bona fide safety matter; and
- the University will not change work, staffing or the organisation of work which is the subject of the dispute, nor take any other action likely to exacerbate the dispute.

A31.8.2 Where a matter has been referred to an external agency under A31.6 or A31.7, work will continue in accordance with the reasonable direction of the University provided that neither party to the dispute shall be prejudiced in the resolution of the dispute.

A31.9 The University will use its best endeavours to ensure the timely conclusion of disputes. For the avoidance of doubt, the internal processes described in A31.3, A31.4 or A31.5 within this clause will lapse if the employee ceases to be employed by the University.

A32 GRIEVANCES

A32.1 [Definition] For the purposes of this clause, a grievance is a complaint which arises as the result of:

A32.1.1 a behaviour or action of another member or members of staff, which has a significant negative impact on the ability of a staff member to undertake her/his duties; or

A32.1.2 a complaint of unlawful discrimination or sexual harassment; or

A32.1.3 subject to A32.2, an action or decision which constitutes a serious error in the procedure of a merit-based selection process where that selection process does not itself provide an avenue for appeal.

A32.2 [Exclusions] This clause does not apply to matters that are covered by alternative University review, appeal or grievance procedures nor to the outcome of a merit-based selection process.

A32.3 [Resolution]

A32.3.1 A staff member is expected to initially seek to resolve a grievance with the staff member against whom the grievance rests or by approach to that staff member's supervisor.

A32.3.2 Where a staff member feels that her/his grievance has not been resolved under A32.3.1, s/he may seek to have the grievance resolved in accordance with the University's Individual Staff Grievance policy. This includes the right to have a grievance formally considered by a grievance committee constituted in accordance with clause A33 of this Agreement.

A32.3.3 Where a staff member seeks to remedy the grievance in a forum external to the University, the staff member will no longer have access to these grievance procedures for that particular matter.

A32.4 [Treatment of staff members lodging or dealing with grievances] A person who lodges a grievance will not be treated unfairly or victimised because of the grievance nor will anyone dealing with the grievance be coerced or intimidated in any way.

A33 REVIEW, APPEALS AND GRIEVANCE COMMITTEES

A33.1 [Committee composition] Where a review, appeals or grievance committee is specified in this Agreement, it will comprise three (3) members as follows:

A33.1.1 A Chairperson, appointed by the Vice-Chancellor from a panel of independent chairpersons agreed by the parties to the Agreement;

A33.1.2 A member nominated by the Vice-Chancellor;

A33.1.3 A staff member nominated by the Deputy Chair of the UCC, in consultation with the members of the UCC who have not been nominated by the Vice-Chancellor.

A33.2 [Operation of committees]

A33.2.1 A committee constituted in accordance with this clause will operate under the terms accorded to it in the relevant provision of this Agreement or University policy.

- A33.2.2 At all times, the committee will apply the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.
- A33.2.3 The committee will make its report available to the parties to the appeal, review or grievance.
- A33.2.4 The committee will:
- (a) take into account such further materials and/or interview any person that it believes appropriate; and
 - (b) ensure opportunity for the parties to the appeal, review or grievance to make submissions, present evidence, see all evidence to be considered and ask questions of any person interviewed by the committee.
- A33.2.5 Notwithstanding A33.2.4, an appeal or grievance committee may exercise discretion with regard to A33.2.4 (b).
- A33.2.6 [Appeal committee] For appeal committees, grounds of appeal are limited to errors in process and do not include a re-assessment or re-hearing of the merits of the matter. Appeal committees may arise in connection with Redundancy appeals (A35) and Academic Promotions appeals (C13).
- A33.3 [No further action] Where a staff member exercises her/his right of review, appeal or grievance under a committee constituted in accordance with this clause, then in relation to any issue or matter which was, or was capable of being, considered by the committee under its terms of reference, no further action can be taken by the staff member under any other review, appeal or disputes provision of this Agreement.

A34 NOTICE OF TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

- A34.1 [Definition] Termination of employment means termination of employment at the initiative of the University.
- A34.2 [Notice period] Unless specified elsewhere in this Agreement and subject to A34.5, a staff member (other than a casual) will not have her/his employment terminated by the University unless s/he has been given 14 days' notice or as otherwise required by the Fair Work Act or as specified in her/his contract of employment, whichever is the greater.
- A34.3 [Payment in lieu] Payment in lieu of notice will be made if the University does not require the staff member to work out the notice period. Where the staff member is only required to work part of the required notice period, the University will pay out the remainder of the notice period.
- A34.4 [Basis for payment in lieu] A payment in lieu of notice will be based on the staff member's salary at the date of cessation of employment.
- A34.5 [Termination without notice] The University may terminate without notice the employment of a member of staff found to have engaged in conduct of a kind envisaged in the Fair Work Act such as would be unreasonable to require the University to continue employment during a period of notice.

A35 REDUNDANCY

- A35.1 [Definition] Redundancy is a situation where the position occupied by a staff member is identified as surplus to the University's requirements for reasons which may include:
- A35.1.1 [For professional staff] financial and staffing constraints, leading to the rearrangement of functions and classifications; reduced demand or other workload factors; technological change and development; or changes in the workplace or legislation requiring particular skills or qualifications that the staff member is unable or unwilling to obtain.
 - A35.1.2 [For academic staff] a decrease in student load or a decision to cease offering or to vary the academic content in any academic program or course or combination or mix of courses, financial exigency within an organisational unit or Faculty/Portfolio and/or changes in technology or work methods.

- A35.2 [Eligibility] Redundancy will only apply to staff members holding continuing appointments.
- A35.3 [Types of redundancy] Redundancy may be either voluntary or involuntary.
- A35.4 [Case for redundancy] Any proposal for redundancy will be made in writing by the Head of the relevant Faculty/Portfolio.
- A35.5 [Principles applying to the redundancy process] The University will seek to maximise the number of voluntary redundancies and redeployments (where appropriate) and to minimise the number of involuntary redundancies. The process of selection of any staff member for redundancy will be objective, fair and transparent, having regard to all the circumstances.
- A35.6 [Separation committee] The separation committee, which will include a staff member appointed in accordance with A33.1.3 will be responsible for approving all stages of the redundancy process. As part of its deliberations, the committee will consider measures to minimise or mitigate the adverse effects of redundancy. Notwithstanding, the chair of the separation committee may approve individual cases for redundancy where separation has been agreed with the staff member.
- A35.7 [Notification of redundancy] Subject to A35.6, when the University determines that redundancy will occur, the staff affected (including those staff on approved leave) will be informed and advised of the period over which the University intends to effect the termination(s).
- A35.8 [Redeployment, relocation and retraining] The University may redeploy a staff member to another suitable position where practicable as a means of mitigating the effects of redundancy. A staff member will not unreasonably decline to accept redeployment, relocation, training or retraining.
- A35.9 [Transfer to lower level position] Where, as an agreed measure to mitigate the effects of the staff member's position being redundant, the staff member is redeployed to a lower level position, normal salary will be maintained for a period of 12 months whilst employment continues.
- A35.10 [Voluntary redundancy] Affected staff will be invited to apply for voluntary redundancy.
- A35.11 [Notification to applicants] The separation committee will either accept or reject the application, and notify the staff member accordingly.
- A35.12 [Benefits payable] A staff member whose application for voluntary redundancy is approved will receive the benefits outlined in A35.17, payable on the day of her/his separation.
- A35.13 [Involuntary redundancy] Where action taken by the University under A35.6 to A35.11 does not achieve the appropriate staff reductions, the separation committee may determine that involuntary redundancy apply to the remaining affected staff member(s). The separation committee will decide the process to be followed. Criteria of relative performance, which will be objective and fair as required by A35.5, will be applied in any process of identifying staff member(s) to be declared involuntarily redundant.
- A35.14 [Determination] The separation committee will, as the end stage of any process followed, formally determine those staff member(s) to be declared involuntarily redundant, confirmation of which will be provided by the University in writing.
- A35.15 [Appeal] A staff member who has been declared involuntarily redundant under A35.14 may appeal the decision to an appeal committee constituted in accordance with A33 of this Agreement.
- [Grounds for appeal] The grounds of appeal will be limited to alleging that one or more decisions taken under this clause substantially miscarried as a result of a serious defect in the decision-making process.

[Terms of reference] The appeal committee will consider the grounds of appeal alleged and material and submissions relevant thereto, and make one of the following recommendations to the Vice-Chancellor:

- that the appeal be dismissed and the original decision be confirmed; or
- that the appeal be upheld.

[Action by Vice-Chancellor] The Vice-Chancellor will consider the recommendation of the appeal committee and make such final determination on the matter as s/he sees fit. Where the appeal committee has recommended the appeal be upheld, the Vice-Chancellor will consider any decision found to have substantially miscarried and take remedial action, if appropriate.

[Impact of appeal on redundancy payment] The amount of redundancy benefit will be reduced commensurate with the length of further employment under this clause by virtue of the appeal process.

A35.16 [Benefits payable] A staff member who has been declared involuntarily redundant will have her/his benefits paid as per A35.18.

A35.23 [Procedures] The procedures that apply to redundancy will be those as set out in the University's Redundancy Policy and Procedures.

A36 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT ON MEDICAL GROUNDS

A36.1 If the University believes there is doubt regarding a staff member's capacity to perform the duties of her/his office, the staff member may be required to undergo a medical examination. The University will choose a medical practitioner to conduct the medical examination at the expense of the University. The University will provide the staff member with written notice of not less than four (4) weeks, except in exceptional circumstances as agreed with the staff member and/or her/his representative, that a medical examination is required.

A36.2 The staff member may elect during the notice period to apply to her/his superannuation fund, for temporary or permanent disablement benefit. The University will suspend any action under this clause while an application is under consideration.

A36.3 The University may direct a staff member to take paid personal/carer's leave whilst awaiting the outcome of an application for temporary or permanent disablement benefit.

A36.4 If the superannuation fund agrees to give temporary or permanent disablement benefit, the staff member will not have to undergo a medical examination under A36.1.

A36.5 If a superannuation fund decides that the staff member, following a period of receipt of a temporary disablement benefit, is capable of resuming work, the University may dispute this decision and proceed to require an examination by a medical practitioner of its choosing.

A36.6 A copy of the medical report made by the medical practitioner will be made available to the University and to the staff member.

A36.7 If the medical examination reveals that the staff member is unable to perform her or his duties and is unlikely to be able to resume them within a reasonable period, being not less than six (6) months, the University may give notice of termination in accordance with the notice required by the staff member's contract of employment or payment in lieu of notice. The staff member may apply to resign before the University terminates her or his employment. The University will accept the resignation immediately.

A36.8 Within 10 working days of receiving the medical report, the staff member or, if she/he so chooses, a person acting on her/his behalf, may request that the report be reviewed. The review will be undertaken by a medical practitioner appointed by the President of the State or Territory Branch of the Australian Medical Association.

A36.9 The medical practitioner making the initial assessment and the medical practitioner undertaking the review (where appropriate) will as far as possible apply the same standards that would be used by the staff member's superannuation scheme in determining qualification for permanent incapacity.

A36.10 The University will not terminate the employment of the staff member before the reviewer reports.

A36.11 Where a staff member refuses to undergo a medical examination within two (2) months of a written notification to do so under A36.1 or A36.5, the University may reasonably conclude that the staff member is unable to perform her or his duties and is unlikely to be able to resume them within six (6) months and may terminate employment in accordance with A36.7. A refusal by a staff member in these circumstances will not constitute misconduct nor lead to any greater penalty or loss of entitlements than would have resulted from an adverse medical report.

A37 RETURNING OFFICER FOR HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVE ELECTIONS

The Manager of the Occupational Health and Safety Unit will act as returning officer for all elections of Health and Safety Representatives and Deputy Health and Safety Representatives.

A38 INDIVIDUAL FLEXIBILITY ARRANGEMENT

A38.1 This clause constitutes the flexibility term required by section 202 of the Fair Work Act.

A38.2 The University and a staff member covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of the Agreement if:

A38.2.1 the arrangement deals with one or more of the following matters: arrangements about when work is performed (B9) including the application of overtime rates (B12); and/or arrangements for the taking of Long Service Leave (A20) in a planned pattern of single days over an extended period; and/or arrangements to vary the minimum period of engagement for a casual professional staff member (B4); and

A38.4.1 is in writing; and

A38.4.2 includes the name of the University and the staff member; and

A38.4.3 is signed by the University and the staff member and if the staff member is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the staff member; and

A38.4.4 includes details of:

(i) the terms of the agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and

(ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and

(iii) how the staff member will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of her or his employment as a result of the arrangement; and

A38.4.5 states the day on which the arrangement commences.

A38.5 The University must give the staff member a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed.

A38.6 The University or staff member may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

A42.2 [Effect on pay/service] Leave granted will be on full pay and will count as service for all purposes. Full pay does not mean or include shift, other penalty payments, allowances or overtime.

A43 INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM

A43.1 Consistent with the principles of intellectual freedom, and subject to meeting their employment obligations, as expressed in A8 of this Agreement, staff members have the right to:

- pursue critical and open inquiry;

- B1.4 [Applications for reclassification] will be submitted to Human Resources in accordance with the University's reclassification procedures.
- B1.4.1 Where there is clear evidence that a reclassification is justified, Human Resources will make a determination and advise the applicant accordingly; or

- B2.5 [Contract of employment]
- B2.5.1 [All appointments other than casual] The University will provide to each staff member (other than a casual staff member) a contract of employment which specifies the terms and conditions applying to that appointment including the classification level, commencement salary, appointment fraction, reporting relationship, length and terms of any probationary period and the broad responsibilities of the appointment. The broad responsibilities will be reflected in a relevant and current position description.
- B2.5.2 [Continuing contingent-funded appointments] In the case of continuing contingent-funded appointments, the contract of employment will also specify the contingency upon the occurrence of which the term of the employment will expire.
- B2.5.3 [Fixed-term appointments] In the case of fixed-term appointments, the contract of employment will also specify:

B4.1 General Principles

- B4.1.1 Casual professional staff are engaged by the hour.

- B4.1.3 Casual staff are engaged with no guarantee or expectation of work beyond the period of their current employment.
- B4.1.4 [Full-time staff and casual work] Staff occupying full-time continuing or fixed-term appointments will not normally be remunerated at a casual hourly rate for work done outside their prescribed ordinary hours of duty.
- B4.1.5 [Part-time staff and casual work] A part-time continuing or fixed-term staff member may undertake additional work as a casual employee in work which is unrelated to, or identifiably distinct from, the employee's normal duties, provided that the sum of the part-time and casual employment does not exceed the full-time equivalent hours for a professional staff employee. Such an arrangement will be subject to mutual agreement and must not interfere with the staff member's substantive work requirement.
- B4.2 [Engagement] The minimum period of engagement for a casual employee will be three (3) hours unless one of the following circumstances applies:
- B4.2.1 [Students] Employees who are students have a minimum engagement of one (1) hour, where the work occurs on any day Monday to Friday during Orientation Week and the teaching weeks of the University, other than on public holidays. Where the student is a resident of on-campus University accommodation, the minimum period of engagement of one (1) hour will apply for any day of the week throughout the Academic Year, from Orientation Week to the last day of the assessment period at the end of the year inclusive (other than on public holidays).

B4.2.2 [Other primary occupation] Employees who have a primary occupation elsewhere in the University or outside of the University have a minimum engagement of one (1) hour.

B4.2.3 [Not required to attend a University site or a site on behalf of the University] Employees who are not required to attend a University site or a site on behalf of the University in order to undertake the work for which they have been engaged have a minimum engagement of one (1) hour. This may include but is not limited to where a casual employee chooses to undertake the work from her or his private residence.

B4.2.4 [Invigilators] Employees who are invigilators for examinations have a minimum engagement of two (2) hours.

B4.3 Casual staff working as research assistants, laboratory support, technical and animal house staff, and administrative staff in Flinders Housing (refer B9.3.3) are required to work a minimum of 152 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 28 consecutive days before payment as per B4.5.6 may apply.

B4.4 [Termination of casual employment] Termination of casual employment may be given by one (1) hour's notice by either party.

B4.5 [Remuneration]

B4.5.1 [Basis of casual rate] Casual rates of pay are determined on the basis of the first year of adult service of the appropriate classification, or, in the case of juniors, at the rate applicable to the employee's age in such classification.

B4.5.2 Casual employment may not be offered at any rate of pay other than those prescribed under this Agreement; nor may any lump sum payment be offered in lieu of the prescribed hourly rate.

B4.5.3 [Loading in lieu of all entitlements] Casual staff are employed on an hourly basis and are paid a loading of 25 percent in lieu of benefits not provided to casual staff including all leave entitlements (with the exception of long service leave), penalties and loadings.

B4.5.4 [Monday to Sunday] Except as provided for in B4.5.5 and B4.5.6, a casual staff member will be paid her or his ordinary casual hourly rate (i.e. including the casual loading) for work performed on any day, in accordance with the rates set out in Schedule 3 of this Agreement.

B4.5.5 [Public holidays] In respect of work performed on any public holiday a casual staff member will be paid a penalty of 50 percent in addition to her or his normal casual hourly rate (i.e. including the casual loading).

B4.5.6 [Overtime] Where a casual staff member is directed to work more than eight (8) hours in any day (Monday to Friday) or where work performed on a weekend or public holiday is in excess of 38 hours within that same pay week, the rate of payment for that work will be in accordance with the following table (based on the casual hourly rate as specified in Schedule 3 of this Agreement):

Days worked	Overtime Rate
Monday – Friday	150%
Saturday	180%
Sunday	200%
Public Holiday (Mon – Sat)	250%

B4.5.7 [Superannuation] The employer superannuation contribution as specified in the Superannuation Guarantee Legislation will be paid, for all ordinary time casual earnings, regardless of any legislated monthly income threshold, for employees engaged in accordance with, and covered by the terms of, this Agreement.

B4.6 Conversion from Casual to Non-Casual Employment

- B4.6.1 [Application] A casual professional staff member may apply in writing to have her or his employment converted to a fixed-term or continuing appointment.
- B4.6.2 [Eligibility] To be eligible to apply for conversion, a casual staff member must be employed on a regular and systematic basis in the same or similar and identically classified position in the same School/Division either:
- B4.6.2.1 over the immediately preceding period of 12 months within which the average weekly hours worked equalled at least 50 percent of the ordinary weekly hours that would have been worked by an equivalent full-time staff member; or
 - B4.6.2.2 over the immediately preceding period of at least 24 months.
- B4.6.3 For the purposes of this clause, occasional and short-term work performed by the casual staff member in another classification, job or School/Division will not affect the staff member's eligibility for conversion if she or he would otherwise satisfy the eligibility criteria.
- B4.6.4 A staff member must not be engaged and re-engaged nor have her or his hours reduced in order to avoid any obligation under this clause.
- B4.6.5 [Refusal to convert] The University will not unreasonably refuse an application for conversion. However, the University may refuse an application on reasonable grounds. Where an application is rejected, the reasons for the rejection will be provided to the applicant in writing.
- B4.6.6 [Conversion to non-casual appointment] If the application is accepted, the staff member will be offered a fixed-term or continuing appointment, on either a full-time or part-time basis.
- B4.6.7 [Non-casual appointment] The non-casual appointment will, subject to due consideration of the University's operational requirements and the desirability of offering the staff member work that is regular and continuous, be as consistent as is reasonably practicable with the pattern of work undertaken by the staff member during her or his casual appointment.

B5 SECURITY OFFICERS (12 HOUR SHIFT)

- B5.1 [Application] The provisions of this clause apply to Security Staff, including staff employed as Senior Security Officers, who work a 12-hour, seven (7) days a week shift roster.
- B5.1.2 The following clauses in this Agreement will not apply to Security Staff covered by this clause:

B7	Allowances
A26	Annual Recreation Leave
B9.6	Flexible Working Hours
B9	Hours of Duty
B12	Overtime
A22	Public Holidays and University Closure

- B5.2 [Rosters] Security Staff will be required to work their ordinary hours in accordance with an established 12-hour shift roster or other rosters as modified by the University from time to time.
- B5.2.1 The University will ensure the appropriate management of the relief staffing roster, the taking of leave to ensure proper rest periods between shift rotations, and for dealing with absences and part shifts.

- B5.2.2 Where the University grants professional staff a 'grace' day, the equivalent time will be factored into the rostering for Security Staff to ensure that they receive the benefit equivalent to that received by other professional staff.
- B5.3 [Annualised shift allowance] Security Staff, who are part of the 12-hour shift roster will be paid a fortnightly salary based on the appropriate annual salary as contained in this Agreement. An annualised allowance, calculated as 27.5 percent of the Security Staff member's actual incremental step of her/his salary scale, will be paid as full payment, for all shift penalties for shifts projected to be worked over the five-year cycle of the shift roster.
- B5.4 The annualised salary will be the salary for all purposes of this Agreement, including annual recreation leave and long service leave.

C2.7.1 [Continuing Staff] will be required to provide the University with six (6) months' notice of intention to resign or as otherwise agreed.

C2.7.2 [Staff on Convertible, Fixed-term and Continuing contingent-funded appointments] will be required to provide the University with four (4) week's notice of intention to resign or as otherwise agreed.

C2.7.3 [Insufficient notice] Where a staff member fails to give notice in accordance with C2.7.1 and C2.7.2, the University may withhold monies owing to the staff member with the maximum amount equal to the period of notice not given.

C2.8 [Termination] A decision to terminate the employment of an academic staff member must be in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

C3 CONVERTIBLE APPOINTMENTS – ACADEMIC STAFF

C3.1 [Rationale for engagement] The University may offer a convertible appointment where the longer-term need and/or funding for the position is uncertain because:

- an academic area of the University is undergoing or about to undergo a review or organisational change; and/or
- a new course/program/topic is being developed and implemented; or
- an existing course/program/topic is being discontinued.

C3.2 [Duration] The term of such an appointment will normally not exceed three (3) years.

C3.3 [Principles for conversion] A convertible post will be converted to a continuing appointment if there is an on-going need and secure funding for the post.

C3.4 [Decision not to convert post] If a post is not converted, the appointment will terminate at the end of the contract.

C3.5 [Decision to convert post] Where a post is converted, the incumbent of the post will be offered a continuing appointment if her/his performance is judged to be satisfactory.

C3.6 [Procedures for assessing performance] The probationary review process as set out in C6 will be used in assessing performance. All service in the convertible appointment will count as relevant service.

C3.7 [Incumbent's performance is not satisfactory] If an incumbent's performance does not meet the required standards for appointment to the continuing post, the appointment will terminate at the end of the contract.

C4 FIXED-TERM APPOINTMENTS FOR ACADEMIC STAFF – ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS

Additional conditions are set out in Schedule 9 of this Agreement.

C5 CASUAL ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

C5.1 [Rationale for engagement] Casual appointments will normally be made where some level of flexibility and/or particular expertise is required by the University in order to provide adequate teaching and teaching related duties.

- C5.2 [Descriptors and Rates of Pay] The rate of pay includes a loading in lieu of benefits not provided to casual staff including all leave entitlements (with the exception of long service leave). Rates applicable to casual academic work and the relevant descriptors are set out in Schedule 7 of this Agreement.
- C5.3 [Casual work undertaken by non-casual employees] An employee in a fixed-term, convertible or continuing appointment (whether full- or part-time) may engage in additional work as a casual employee subject to:
- C5.3.1 the work being unrelated to, or identifiably separate from, the employee's normal duties; and
- C5.3.2 the employee not being eligible for payment for that portion of their total work which exceeds the equivalent of a full-time appointment.
- C5.4 [Superannuation] The employer superannuation contribution as specified in the Superannuation Guarantee Legislation will be paid for all ordinary time casual earnings, regardless of any legislated monthly income threshold, for employees engaged in accordance with, and covered by the terms of, this Agreement.

C6 PROBATION FOR ACADEMIC STAFF

- C6.1 [Probationary Period] A staff member, other than a casual, will normally be required to serve a probationary period at the commencement of employment.

[Length] The length of the probationary period will differ according to the type and duration of academic appointment and to the nature of the position and, subject to the grant of any extension pursuant to clause C6.6, will not exceed the following:

Type and duration of appointment	Probationary Period
Fixed-term appointments up to and including 12 months	Up to 3 months
Fixed-term appointments more than 12 months	Up to 6 months
Scholarly Fellow Academic Appointment	Up to 24 Months
Convertible appointments	Up to 24 months
Continuing appointments	Up to 24 months

- C6.2 [Second or subsequent appointment] A probationary period will not normally apply to a second or subsequent appointment to the University unless the second or subsequent appointment is significantly different in duties and/or classification level from the original appointment.
- C6.3 [Authorising Officer] For the purposes of this clause, the authorising officer will be as follows:
- Staff in fixed-term positions: the staff member's supervisor;
 - Staff in convertible and continuing appointments: the relevant Executive Dean.
- C6.4 [Supervisor support] During a probationary period, the University will ensure, through the designated supervisor, that appropriate feedback, support and training opportunities are provided to the staff member.
- C6.5 [Confirmation of employment] Confirmation of employment at the end of the probationary period will be subject to the authorising officer being satisfied, as of the time of consideration of the matter, that the staff member:
- has met the qualification base of, and has demonstrated satisfactory performance relative to the Academic Profile for the staff member's level of appointment, taking into account what may be expected, given her/his years of service; and
 - has completed relevant orientation and induction training within the probationary period, unless agreed otherwise.

Poor performance in teaching or research may provide grounds for not confirming employment, notwithstanding satisfactory performance in other areas. Before determining that an appointment not be confirmed, the authorising officer will provide the staff member a reasonable opportunity to respond to concerns about her/his performance and/or conduct.

- C6.6 [Extension of probationary period] There will be no extension to a probationary period for fixed-term appointments. In the case of convertible appointments and continuing appointments, if the authorising officer is of the opinion both that the requirements for confirmation of employment have not been satisfied but that they are capable of being satisfied within a further period of up to 12 months from the initial date of expiry of the probationary period, the authorising officer may, once only, extend the probationary period of the staff member concerned by a maximum of 12 months from the initial date of expiry. Notwithstanding the preceding, the probationary period of a staff member in a convertible post will not be extended beyond the expiry of the period of the convertible post to which she or he was appointed.
- C6.7 [Effect of promotion on probation] A staff member who is promoted during a period of probation in a continuing appointment will have her/his continuing appointment confirmed from the date of effect of the promotion. A staff member who is promoted during a period of probation in a convertible post, and whose post is subsequently assessed by the Faculty/Portfolio to be continuing will have the continuing appointment confirmed from the date the convertible post was deemed by the Faculty/Portfolio to be continuing or from the date of promotion, whichever is the later.
- C6.8 [Non-confirmation of employment – review]
- C6.8.1 [Right of review for staff in convertible and continuing posts] A staff member in a convertible or continuing post, whose employment has not been confirmed has a right to seek a review, if and only if the authorising officer has not confirmed the employment in accordance with C6.5 and has not extended the probationary period in accordance with C6.6, or, having extended the probationary period, has not confirmed the appointment at the end of the extended probationary period.
- C6.8.2 [Timeline for application for review] No review in accordance with C6.8.1 will be undertaken unless the staff member:
- C6.8.2.1 within five (5) working days of being formally notified of the determination giving rise to the right of review, gives written notice of the intention to seek such a review; and
- C6.8.2.2 within 10 working days of being formally notified of that determination, lodges her/his written case for review;
- in both instances with the Director, Human Resources.
- C6.8.3 [Review Committee] The review will be undertaken by a Review Committee constituted in accordance with clause A33 which will make a recommendation to the Vice-Chancellor within the following terms of reference:
- (a) to consider (i) the material that was before the authorising officer and (ii) the staff member's representations, if any, concerning the circumstances surrounding the decision-making process;
- (b) to report to the Vice-Chancellor on whether or not the decision of the authorising officer (i) is substantiated or (ii) substantially miscarried as a result of serious defect in the decision-making process or evidence that the staff member was discriminated against (being discrimination as defined under the University's Equal Opportunity Policy); and
- (c) to make one of the following recommendations to the Vice-Chancellor:
- C6.8.3.1 that the employment of the staff member be not confirmed; or
- C6.8.3.2 that the probationary period of the staff member be extended by up to 12 months (but in the case of a convertible post, not extending beyond the expiry of the period of the post), provided the staff member concerned has not previously had her or his probationary period extended, and the Review Committee is of the opinion that that the requirements for confirmation of employment are capable of being met within such further period; or

C6.8.3.3 that the employment of the staff member be confirmed.

C6.8.4 [Determination by the Vice-Chancellor] The Vice-Chancellor will consider the report of the Review Committee and, on its basis together with the relevant criteria for confirmation of appointment, make a written determination which, if adverse to the staff member, will contain written reasons. The Vice-Chancellor's decision will be final.

C6.9 [Termination of employment during the probationary period] Subject only to C6.10.2 and C6.10.3, nothing in this clause prevents the University:

C6.9.1 Terminating the employment of a staff member on probation in a fixed-term appointment.

C6.9.2 Terminating the employment of a staff member in a convertible or continuing appointment during the first six (6) months of a probationary period.

C6.10 [Notice]

C6.10.1 In the case of non-confirmation of employment, the University will provide four (4) weeks' notice for staff in either fixed-term or convertible appointments, and 17 weeks' notice for staff in continuing appointments. The notice period will commence from the date the staff member is formally notified of the authorising officer's determination not to confirm the employment, but time will be suspended pending the determination of any review initiated in accordance with C6.8.

C6.10.2 In the case of termination of employment pursuant to C6.9, the University will provide four (4) weeks' notice for staff in either fixed-term or convertible appointments, and 13 weeks' notice for staff in continuing appointments.

C6.10.3 In all instances where notice is required under this clause, the University reserves the right to provide payment in lieu of such notice.

C7 OUTSIDE STUDIES SCHEME

C7.1 [Purpose of scheme] In line with its strategic plan, the University is committed to providing staff with opportunities to carry out sustained scholarly activity or gain professional experience outside the University, in order to maintain and enhance the quality of its teaching and research, and the international profile of the University.

C7.2 Eligibility

C7.2.1 All members of the University's academic staff occupying posts with an appointment fraction of 0.4 and above (excluding casual staff) are eligible to accrue qualifying service for an Outside Studies Program (OSP), provided that:

C7.2.1.1 staff on probationary periods (including those occupying convertible appointments) will not normally be eligible to take an initial program until their appointments have been confirmed on a continuing basis;

C7.2.1.2 staff on fixed-term contracts must normally serve three (3) continuous years with the University before being eligible to take an initial program;

C7.2.1.3 notwithstanding C7.2.1.1 and C7.2.1.2, a staff member must also have an appointment of sufficient length to allow her/him to return to the University for a period equal to twice the length of the approved program or a period of six (6) months, whichever is the lesser;

C7.2.1.4 an OSP will not normally be granted to a staff member in the year in which s/he is due to retire, or for the period between notice of resignation being given and the effective date of resignation, unless the requirements of C7.2.1.3 can be met and substantial benefits to the Faculty/Portfolio/University can be demonstrated.

C7.2.1.5 Research-only staff are not eligible for OSP under this clause.

C7.2.2 Although a staff member may be eligible to apply to undertake an OSP, no applicant has a right to take a program, and the University has no obligation to grant the application.

C7.3 [Basis of approval] The essential, but not exclusive, conditions for approval of a program are that it will bring significant benefits to the Faculty/Portfolio/University, and that appropriate arrangements have been made to maintain teaching, examining and administrative responsibilities.

C7.4 [Transferability of Service] Prior continuous paid service with other Australian higher education institutions will continue to be recognised as qualifying service for the purposes of the University's Outside Studies Scheme, in accordance with the rules of that Scheme.

C7.5 [All other matters] relating to OSP will be as set out in the applicable University policies as they exist from time to time.

C8 OFF-SHORE TEACHING

C8.1 Off-shore activities will usually be considered to be within normal academic workloads.

C8.2 Wherever practicable there will be consistent treatment of staff across the University which also allows flexibility to suit individual circumstances and operational needs.

C8.3 Inability to participate in off-shore programs should not affect a staff member's position at the University, unless participation in such programs is part of the agreed job specification.

C8.4 [Remuneration] All staff undertaking approved off-shore teaching activities will receive an allowance for each day worked in addition to normal salary, subject to clause C8.6. This daily allowance will be paid at a rate per day equivalent to the L2 rate applicable to casual academic staff as prescribed in this Agreement.

C8.5 The University will approve payment additional to that specified in clause C8.4 in exceptional cases where a full campus-based workload is maintained in addition to undertaking off-shore activities, subject to clause C8.6.

C8.6 Travel days will not attract any additional remuneration under clauses C8.4 and C8.5.

C8.7 The Australian Taxation Office 'reasonable' overseas travel expenses rates will be payable as a per diem without the need for acquittal.

C8.8 Additional expenses related to a staff member's travel overseas for the purpose of course delivery will be reimbursed where established and agreed by the Executive Dean prior to departure.

C8.9 The University's expectation is that off-shore teaching will, in the majority of cases, be undertaken by staff in continuing/convertible/fixed-term appointments. Where a casual academic staff member undertakes off-shore teaching, notwithstanding C8.6, the casual academic staff member will be remunerated for seven (7) hours per travel day at the OD1 rate as prescribed by this Agreement.

C9 CLINICAL LOADINGS

C9.1 [Criteria] Salary loadings for clinical responsibilities are payable to medically qualified members of the academic staff in the School of Medicine in accordance with this clause.

C9.2 [Exclusion] A medically qualified staff member whose qualifications are not registered in the State/Territory of employment will not be eligible for a clinical loading.

C9.3 [Amounts of Clinical Loadings] Schedule 6 of this Agreement sets out the relevant criteria and rates for clinical loadings. Clinical loadings are superannuable.

C10 ACADEMIC WORKLOADS

C10.1 [General principles] The University and its staff recognise the importance of a balance between working life and family/social responsibilities. Academic staff members and their supervisors will use their best endeavours to ensure that academic workloads are equitable, transparent and manageable.

C10.1.1 The workload distribution of an individual academic will be determined in accordance with the workload measurement and allocation scheme developed by the relevant School, in consultation with staff, consistent with the Academic Workload Equalisation Principles.

C10.1.2 In general terms, there is an expectation that a full-time academic would be able to undertake her or his workload in 1725 hours per year (this figure incorporates an adjustment for four (4) weeks' annual leave and 10 public holidays).

C10.1.3 If, during the life of this Agreement, the average workload increases for a particular School, as indicated in the formula for that School, the Dean of the School, in consultation with the Executive Dean and staff of the School will:

- analyse the reasons for the increase in workload; and
- implement suitable amelioration strategies such as examining staffing levels, teaching practices and/or programs.

C10.1.4 The University is committed throughout the term of this Agreement, as part of its ongoing management strategies, to investigating and devising strategies for addressing workloads. Any resulting initiatives will seek to support and enhance the University's commitment to quality in teaching and research.

C10.2 [Academic Workload Equalisation Principles]

C10.2.1 There is a generic approach in the University to academic workloads which requires schools to develop workload measurement and allocation schemes that are inclusive of all workload associated with the Academic Profiles, transparent to staff and efficient to administer.

C10.2.2 Aggregated measures of workload will be used in each of the four categories identified in the Academic Profiles: teaching, research and creative activity, administration (including service to the University) and professional performance (including service to the community). These categories are to be recognised as the basic components of the measured workload of academic staff. It is intended that an academic staff member's workload will comprise an appropriate mix of these components, taking account of the diversity of academic roles.

C10.2.3 Workload relative weightings for these components will take account of the priorities for each School and the way in which the School is funded or generates income.

To provide clarity, it is recognised that:

- Workload allocations for research and creative activity will have regard to the diversity of academic roles, the University's strategic priorities, a School's operational requirements and performance standards for research and creative activity. The workload model will take into account previous research performance, and will provide appropriate opportunity for research and creative activity. Research and creative activity outputs may be benchmarked to those in comparable discipline areas in other universities. Expected outputs will be reasonable and appropriate for the level of academic appointment and role.

- As teaching activities may vary across schools and academic groups, the aggregated measure of activities should encompass but not be limited to:
 - Preparation of teaching materials for all modes of delivery;
 - Delivery of teaching materials in all modes for undergraduate, honours and postgraduate coursework programs;
 - Supervision of undergraduate, honours and postgraduate coursework projects;
 - Preparing, marking and moderation of student assessment;
 - Student consultation related to learning.
- For the purpose of the administration of workload schemes, certain activities may be considered to be either of two areas of activity:
 - Topic and course co-ordination and administration, including the supervision of casual academic staff, may be considered either as teaching or as administration/service to the University.
 - Research Higher Degree supervision and coordination may be considered either as research/creative activity or teaching.

A School workload model may in the first instance determine in which area such activities are placed. This determination will not have any consequential impact on the appropriate mix of other workload components, which will be consonant with each individual staff member's academic role. If a School model stipulates that an activity may be placed in either area, the determination will be agreed between the staff member and his or her supervisor.

- C10.2.4 The operation of the agreed workload formula within each School will be consistently applied across all academic levels (A-E).
- C10.2.5 In order to calculate the total workload of each individual, each School will decide on a single basic unit of measurement or some other method of measuring staff members' activities across the areas.
- C10.2.6 Staff within each School, irrespective of level, are expected to have approximately the same overall total workload (quantitatively) while allowing for the distribution of total workload across the academic areas to vary between individuals.
- C10.2.7 In determining each annual workload, some account should be taken of individuals' workloads in previous and possibly future years.
- C10.2.8 Where individuals have the capacity to earn additional external income from academic-related activities (e.g. consultancy), there should be provision for a potential transfer of such income from these individuals to the School to compensate for teaching (or other activities) not being performed by them, subject to the approval of the Dean of the School.
- C10.2.9 The target workload expected of an academic staff member in any given year should be reduced on a pro rata basis to take account of approved periods of leave taken in that year. In this context, the University's working year should be taken as consisting of 46 weeks (this figure incorporates an adjustment for 4 weeks' annual leave and 10 public holidays).
- C10.2.10 The workload scheme within each School will be developed and applied by the Dean of the School in consultation with all staff and each of the schemes will be approved by the Executive Dean as being consistent with the above principles.
- C10.2.11 Deans of Schools will distribute each year to all academic members of their School a document setting out the details of the scheme referred to in clause C10.2.10 and the workload allocations for all of the academic staff within the School.
- C10.2.12 Deans of Schools will forward each year to their Executive Dean and the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) a document setting out the details of the scheme referred to in clause C10.2.10, details of the consultation process and the workload allocations for all of the staff within the School.

C10.2.13 Where a staff member feels aggrieved about the application of the workload allocation scheme in respect of her or his own workload, the staff member should raise her or his concern with the Dean of the School in the first instance. If the matter is not resolved following consultation with the Dean of the School, the staff member should refer the matter to the Executive Dean.

C11 ACADEMIC STAFF PERFORMANCE REVIEW

C11.1 All academic staff (other than casual staff) will be required to undertake a performance review, normally on an annual basis, in accordance with the Academic Staff Performance Review Scheme.

C11.2 The Academic Staff Performance Review Scheme is designed to review regularly the performance and the professional development of staff. There are separate procedures for reviewing and investigating in a formal manner unsatisfactory performance and misconduct, and these procedures are set out elsewhere in this Agreement.

The objectives of the Scheme are to:

- assist staff to develop academically and professionally and to provide them with reliable information on the University's expectation of performance;
- assist the University and staff jointly to plan the work of staff to achieve desired goals; and
- assist supervisors in monitoring and assessing a staff member's performance.

C11.3 Documentation completed in the course of performance reviews will be collected and held in a manner consistent with the confidentiality and reporting provisions of the Scheme as at the time of certification of this Agreement.

C11.4 The performance of casual staff will be reviewed in accordance with the Performance Management Guidelines for Casual Academic Staff (Part-Time Teachers).

C12 ACADEMIC PROFILES

C12.1 There is an Academic Profile for each of the five (5) defined levels of academic appointment – Levels A to E. There are Academic Profiles for appointments in Yunggoorendi at Levels A to D.

C12.2 Each Academic Profile includes the range of activities in which a staff member could be expected to be involved and the qualifications normally required of a staff member.

C12.3 Academic Profiles provide the basis for the management of performance of academic staff including performance reviews, incremental progression, probation, promotion and recognition of exceptional performance.

C12.4 The Academic Profiles were developed from the Position Classification Standards, which were then replaced by the Minimum Standards for Academic Levels (MSALs). The MSALs are set out in Schedule 11 to this Agreement.

C13 ACADEMIC PROMOTION

C13.1 [Applications for promotion] will be determined objectively on the basis of academic merit. Evaluation of academic merit in this context involves the deliberative input of academic judgement as a significant element, the primary vehicle for which will be an appropriately constituted committee which is independent of the academic supervision of those applying for promotion. Further, evaluation of academic merit will take account of clause C12 and, in particular, the expectations specified in the Academic Profiles for the level to which promotion is sought, giving due consideration to achievements demonstrated within the areas covered by the Profiles.

- C13.2 [Eligibility to apply for promotion] All academic staff, other than casual staff, are eligible to apply for promotion except that for staff employed on a fixed-term basis, the cumulative term of appointment must be at least three (3) years.
- C13.3 [Appeals] A member of the academic staff whose application for promotion is unsuccessful has a right to appeal the decision on grounds limited to alleging that the decision substantially miscarried as a result either of serious defect in the decision-making process or evidence that the applicant was discriminated against (being discrimination as defined under the University's Equal Opportunity policy). Any appeal will be to an Appeal Committee constituted in accordance with clause A33.
- C13.4 [Promotions committees] The composition of the promotions committees for applications to levels B to E and the composition of the Promotions and Academic Appointment Review Committee will provide for the President of the Flinders Branch of the NTEU (or nominee) to be a non-voting member.
- C13.5 [All other matters] relating to the promotion of academic staff, will be as set out in the applicable University policies as they exist from time to time.

C14 ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE: UNSATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE AND MISCONDUCT / SERIOUS MISCONDUCT

- C14.1 [Scope] This clause applies to all academic staff except those serving a probationary period and staff employed on a casual basis.
- C14.2 [Prior opportunity to remedy concerns] The supervisor will normally deal with a case of less than satisfactory performance or conduct in the first instance. Action under this clause will not normally be undertaken unless:
- C14.2.1 in the case of performance, the staff member has been provided with a reasonable opportunity to understand the University's expectation of performance as described in the relevant Academic Profile; and
 - C14.2.2 the staff member has been afforded reasonable opportunity and support to respond to and remedy concerns about performance and/or conduct; and
 - C14.2.3 the supervisor determines that despite reasonable efforts to remedy concerns, the staff member's performance and/or conduct continues to be unsatisfactory; and
 - C14.2.4 the supervisor makes a formal report to the Executive Dean; and
 - C14.2.5 the Executive Dean, having given due consideration to the report and any response from the staff member, determines that disciplinary action is warranted.
- C14.3 Notwithstanding C14.2, the Executive Dean may deal with an allegation of misconduct or serious misconduct in the first instance under this clause should special circumstances warrant. The staff member will be afforded reasonable opportunity to respond to the allegation prior to any action under C14.7.
- C14.4 Disciplinary action should be used as a last resort and may only be taken in accordance with this clause.
- C14.5 [Definitions]
- ['Misconduct'] means:
- conduct or behaviour of a kind which constitutes an impediment to the carrying out of an employee's duties or to an employee's colleagues carrying out her or his duties;
 - conduct or behaviour which is inconsistent with an employee's obligations to the employer, as specified in A8 of this Agreement; or
 - dereliction of the duties required of an academic office.

['Serious misconduct'] means:

- serious misbehaviour of a kind which constitutes a serious impediment to the carrying out of an academic's duties or to an academic's colleagues carrying out their duties;
- serious dereliction of the duties required of an academic office, or
- conviction by a court of an offence which constitutes a serious impediment of the kind referred to above.

['Level 1 disciplinary action'] means:

- censuring the staff member; and/or
- giving the staff member a written warning (including, where appropriate, a final warning) about potential disciplinary action if the unsatisfactory performance is not remedied or if the misconduct or serious misconduct is repeated.

['Level 2 disciplinary action'] means disciplinary action including:

- demoting the staff member by one (1) or more salary steps and/or by one (1) classification level;
- suspending the staff member with pay;
- withholding of an increment;
- removing certain administrative duties and responsibilities which involve the payment of an allowance; or
- terminating the staff member's employment.

C14.6 [Disciplinary action in accordance with clause] Subject to C14.1, disciplinary action may only be taken in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

C14.7 [Action by Executive Dean following determination]

Where, in accordance with C14.2 or C14.3, the Executive Dean has determined that disciplinary action be undertaken, she/he may:

C14.7.1 ['Level 1' disciplinary action] determine that 'Level 1' disciplinary action be taken, as provided for in clause C14.5. This determination is final. The staff member will have an opportunity to provide a written statement, for placing on file with the University's formal advice about the disciplinary action.

C14.7.2 ['Level 2' disciplinary action] recommend to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) that she/he take 'Level 2' disciplinary action, as provided for in clause C14.5.

C14.8 [Opportunity for staff member to respond to 'Level 2' disciplinary action recommendation to Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic)] The staff member will be entitled to provide a written response to the Executive Dean's report within 10 working days.

C14.9 [Investigative Officer] Where a matter has been referred to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic), she/he will appoint an Investigative Officer to investigate the matter, prior to making a determination under C14.10. The Investigative Officer will make a written report of the investigation.

C14.10 [Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic)'s determination] will have regard to the Investigative Officer's report, the Executive Dean's report and recommendation, and any written or verbal response from the staff member. The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) may:

C14.10.1 advise the staff member in writing that she/he is satisfied that there has been no unsatisfactory performance/misconduct/serious misconduct. By agreement with the staff member, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) may publish the advice in an appropriate manner; or

C14.10.2 take a 'Level 1' disciplinary action (in which case the decision will be final); or

C14.10.3 take a 'Level 2' disciplinary action.

C14.11 [Date of effect of ‘Level 2’ disciplinary action] The decision will take effect no earlier than five (5) working days from the date of written advice from the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic).

C14.12 [Termination of employment] may occur:

- on the grounds of unsatisfactory performance, where the staff member has previously received a written warning that further unsatisfactory performance may lead to termination of employment; or
- on the grounds of unsatisfactory conduct, where the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) determines that the conduct of the staff member amounts to serious misconduct.

C14.13 [Review of Decision] A staff member may seek a review of a decision by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) to take ‘Level 2’ disciplinary action, in which case the matter will be referred to a Discipline Review Committee.

C14.14 [Disciplinary action suspended for duration of review] A ‘Level 2’ disciplinary action will not take effect prior to the conclusion of the review proceedings. However, in cases of alleged misconduct/serious misconduct, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) may suspend the staff member for the duration of the review proceedings, in accordance with clause C15.

C14.15 [Discipline Review Committee composition] will be in accordance with clause A33 of this Agreement.

C14.16 [Terms of Reference] are to report to the Vice-Chancellor on whether:

- the allegation of unsatisfactory performance, misconduct or serious misconduct has been substantiated;
- the procedures in this clause have been followed;
- there are any mitigating circumstances not already raised for consideration by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic); and
- whether, having regard to the above, the proposed disciplinary action is commensurate with the level of unsatisfactory performance, misconduct or serious misconduct.

C14.17 [Vice-Chancellor’s determination] The Vice-Chancellor will consider any matters raised by the report of the Discipline Review Committee, before making a final determination as to whether the relevant form of disciplinary action is warranted, or whether alternative disciplinary action or no further action should be taken. The Vice-Chancellor will provide her/his decision in writing.

C14.18 [No further action] The steps and decisions taken under this clause (subject to consideration by the Discipline Review Committee) may not be challenged via any one or more of the disputes, grievance or review processes of the University.

C14.19 [Research Misconduct] Where an allegation of Research Misconduct has been made, the following additional provisions apply:

C14.19.1 For the purposes of this clause Research Misconduct means:

- fabrication, falsification, plagiarism or deception in proposing, carrying out or reporting the results of research;
- failure to declare or manage a serious conflict of interest;
- avoidable failure to follow research proposals as approved by a research ethics committee, particularly where this failure may result in unreasonable risk or harm to humans, animals or the environment;

A complaint or allegation relates to research misconduct if it involves both intent and deliberation, recklessness or gross and persistent negligence; and serious consequences, such as false information on the public record, or adverse effects on research participants, animals or the environment.

C14.19.2 The Vice-Chancellor may determine, at her/his absolute discretion, that an investigation and/or review concerning allegations of research misconduct requires specialised knowledge about the area of research and expertise in the conduct of research. This means that

- (a) a matter for investigation under clause C14.9 may be referred to a small panel of investigative officers of no more than three (3) persons, as determined by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) in place of an “Investigative Officer”.
- (b) the composition of a Discipline Review Committee under clause C14.15 may be augmented by up to two (2) persons (so there may be a maximum of five (5) members). Where additional members are required, these will be agreed with the Flinders President of the NTEU.
- (c) a Chair who has expertise in the conduct of a research investigation, or in the conduct of tribunals of fact, and/or is a subject expert in relation to the matter under investigation may be appointed in place of the Chair appointment under clause C14.15. Such a Chair may be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor or delegate, having conferred with the Flinders Branch President of the NTEU and agreed on an acceptable Chair.

C14.19.3 Research Misconduct shall be dealt with in accordance with this Clause as either misconduct or serious misconduct except for variations provided for under clause C14.19.

C14.19.4 Where the allegations of research misconduct appear to involve action in concert between employees of more than one employer, the Vice-Chancellor, the NTEU and the CEOs of the other employers may agree to the conduct of a joint independent investigation and review process, governed by provisions which are to be agreed in writing. Should this occur, the provisions as agreed in writing shall apply in substitution for the provisions set out in this Agreement.

C14.19.5 If in the future the University is required to further comply with the procedures for dealing with allegations of misconduct or serious misconduct in research as set out in Part B of the Australian Code for the Responsible Conduct of Research, then the University will discuss this requirement with the NTEU.

C15 SUSPENSION IN THE CASE OF ALLEGED MISCONDUCT OR SERIOUS MISCONDUCT – ACADEMIC STAFF

C15.1 At the time that an allegation of misconduct or serious misconduct becomes known the academic supervisor may recommend to the Executive Dean that the staff member is suspended with or without pay.

C15.2 Suspension without pay may only apply where the Executive Dean is of the view that the alleged conduct amounts to conduct of a kind envisaged in the Fair Work Act such that it would be unreasonable to require the University to continue the employment during a period of notice.

C15.3 The following conditions will apply to a suspension:

C15.3.1 where suspension without pay occurs at a time when the staff member is on paid leave of absence the staff member will continue to receive a salary for the period of the leave of absence;

C15.3.2 the staff member may engage in paid employment or draw on any recreation leave or long service leave credits for the duration of the suspension without pay;

C15.3.3 the Executive Dean may at any time direct that salary be paid on the grounds of hardship; and

C15.3.4 where a suspension without pay has been imposed and the matter is subsequently referred to a Review Committee, the Committee will at its first meeting determine whether the suspension without pay should continue and will have the power to revoke such a suspension from its date of effect.

C15.4 During any period of suspension, the staff member may be excluded from the University, provided that she or he will be permitted reasonable access to the University for the preparation of her or his case and to collect personal property.

C15.5 Where a staff member has been suspended without pay pending the outcome of the disciplinary proceedings, any lost income will be reimbursed if there was no misconduct or serious misconduct. However, a decision taken by the relevant University officer (Executive Dean, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) or Vice-Chancellor) in her or his discretion not to dismiss or impose another penalty will not be construed as an admission that there was no conduct justifying suspension without pay.

C16 CONVERSION FROM ACADEMIC CASUAL TO SESSIONAL FIXED-TERM EMPLOYMENT

C16.1 [Rationale for engagement] The University may convert the employment of an eligible casual academic staff member to a Sessional Fixed-Term Appointment where, for a defined period, there is both a need and secure funding for the Sessional Fixed-Term post.

C16.2 [Eligibility] An eligible casual academic staff member will:

- have been employed as a casual staff member, normally in the same area, for at least one (1) semester in each of the preceding two (2) years; and
- have been assessed as at least satisfactory against the University's Performance Management Guidelines for Casual Academic Staff (Part-Time Teachers); and
- have demonstrated the ability to meet the requirements of the fixed-term position.

C16.3 [Duties, fraction and level of appointment] The appointment fraction and academic level of the Sessional Fixed-Term position will reflect the requirements of that position. It is expected that in most cases, the fraction will be similar to the hours worked in the previous casual employment, and will include work such as educational delivery, marking, administration, class contact and associated work. Conversion will not normally be to a classification higher than Academic Level B.

C16.4 [Duration] Each Sessional Fixed-Term Appointment, and any subsequent Sessional Fixed-Term Appointment, will be for not less than six (6) months and will not exceed two (2) years.

C17 OVERSEAS CONFERENCE SCHEME

C17.1 [Purpose of scheme] The purpose of the Overseas Conference Scheme (OCS) is to assist members of staff who are invited to make substantial contributions to overseas conferences of significant importance.

C17.2 [Eligibility] All members of the University's academic staff appointed for one (1) year or more with an appointment fraction of 0.4 and above are eligible to apply for financial support in the form of a contribution to travel expenses.

C17.3 [All other matters] relating to OCS will be as set out in the applicable University policies as they exist from time to time.

C18 SCHOLARLY FELLOW ACADEMIC APPOINTMENT

C18.1 [Rationale for engagement] A Scholarly Fellow academic appointment is a new category of employment that provides academic career development opportunities and increased job security for eligible applicants. It is intended that the role will encompass elements of teaching and teaching related duties that would otherwise have been performed by casual staff. This clause enables the University to offer a Scholarly Fellow academic appointment where there is an opportunity to provide an academic pathway for the incumbent, longer term funding and a need within the school.

- C18.2 [Eligibility] An applicant for a Scholarly Fellow academic appointment must have at least one year's academic employment experience in an Australian university (excluding a person who has held a continuing academic appointment).
- C18.3 [Recruitment] Appointments will be made on an open, merit-based selection basis.
- C18.4 [Level of appointment] Appointments will be at Level A or B, depending on qualifications and academic track record, in accordance with the relevant academic profile.
- C18.5 [Academic role] Appointments may be either education-focused or balanced academic role, depending on the needs of the school/faculty or area/portfolio.
- C18.6 [Probation] will be normally for a period of up to 24 months, as provided for in clause C6.
- C18.7 [Appointment type and duration] Scholarly Fellow academic appointments may be offered on a convertible basis, subject to the terms of this clause.
- C18.8 [Convertible appointment] Over the life of the Agreement the University will offer at least 10 Scholarly Fellow academic appointments as convertible appointments. Such appointments will not normally exceed three (3) years and will be converted to continuing at the University's discretion, having regard to:
- there being an ongoing need and secure funding that would justify the post being made continuing; and
 - the incumbent's performance being judged to be satisfactory. The procedures for assessing performance will be the probationary review process.

If the staff member's appointment is converted, he/she will no longer be a Scholarly Fellow.

- C18.9 [Promotion] A Scholarly Fellow may apply for promotion in accordance with the relevant promotion policy following successful completion of his/her probationary period.

- 4.2 It is intended that any increase in employer superannuation contributions is planned and therefore it is not the intention of this clause to require a change in superannuation arrangements part way through an externally funded contract.
- 4.2.1 The University will encourage applicants for funding to use their best endeavours to accommodate in future applications for funding the higher level of employer superannuation contribution referred to in Clause 4.1 and where successful, to pass this benefit on to the staff member on the continuing contingent-funded appointment.

SCHEDULE 10 PROFESSIONAL STAFF CLASSIFICATION DESCRIPTORS

The Professional staff Classification Descriptors, which were developed by the University and representatives of the four unions who are party to the Agreement, came into operation in July 2006. They identify the appropriate qualification and/or experience requirement for each Higher Education Officer Level 1 to 10 and summarise the operating levels for each of the seven position domains that are relevant to every professional staff position.

Information about the Qualifications Requirements and matrices for each of the position domains – Supervision Received; Supervision Provided to others; Knowledge; Work Complexity; Judgement and Problem Solving; Written Communication; and Oral Communication and Interpersonal Skills – are also provided below.

It is recognised that some professional staff positions will feature all of the domains to a similar extent. By contrast and depending on their nature and purpose, some jobs will strongly feature only some of the domains while the other domains will be less strongly emphasised. In assessing the classification of a position, Human Resources will take into consideration issues involving specialisation or diversity of functions.
