CAN MY CURRENT SKILLS BE RECOGNISED?

There are different terms used to refer to the recognition of an individual's learning and skills.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a form of assessment used to determine whether a person has achieved through formal or informal learning and experience, any of required competencies of the course.

It is the recognition of competencies acquired and held through prior learning, formal training, work experience or life experience. It is the equivalent to assessment against a unit of competency.

Credit Transfer assesses the initial course or subject that an individual is using to claim access to, or the award of credit in, a destination course. The assessment determines the extent to which the clients initial course or subject is equivalent to the required learning outcomes, competency outcomes, or standards in a qualification. This may include credit transfer based on formal learning that is outside the AQF.

A copy of MADEC's RPL Guide is available from our campus or on our website www.madec.edu.au
