CHC41602 Certificate IV in Community Services Lifestyle and Leisure (Aged Care Stream)

This course is designed for those working in residential facilities, community agencies and day centres.

Upon successful completion of this course, graduates will have the skills to assist in the design, implementation and evaluation of health and leisure for clients in the aged care sector.

They will have an understanding of Indigenous culture and history and be able to deliver services to local communities.

Additional Course Information

WHERE COULD I GAIN EMPLOYMENT?

Upon completion of this program, participants will be equipped with the additional knowledge necessary to allow Them to design, implement and evaluate health and leisure for clients in the aged care sector.

FUTURE PATHWAYS?

Upon completion of this qualification, participants will be qualified to undertake further studies including Diploma in Aged Care Work.

HOW AM I SELECTED FOR THIS COURSE?

The selection process requires the prospective student to attend an interview session, by appointment with the program Coordinator.

WHAT ARE THE PRE-REQUISITES?

For entry into Certificate IV in Community Services (Lifestyle and Leisure), applicants must have successfully completed Certificate III in Aged Care Work, and be currently employed in the field of Aged Care Work.

ACCESS AND EQUITY

MADEC believes that all students have the right to study in a positive environment which values diversity and protects them from any form of discrimination and harassment. People with physical and/or learning disabilities are encouraged to apply for enrolment into MADEC programs, and assistance and/or referral to a range of services is available to assist clients to meet minimum entry requirements where required.

Students are required to pay an enrolment fee. Full payment of fees is required prior to program commencement, except where an exemption has been granted, or payment by instalment arranged.

Concession fees are available to eligible students. A student may withdraw from the course at any time, and MADEC has in place a refund policy. Before you withdraw from the program please discuss your options with your trainer.

HOW IS THE COURSE STRUCTURED?

The course is structured to include a combination of timetabled off-campus study, coupled with monthly on-campus sessions with the Trainer.

HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE?

The course is designed to be conducted over a twelve month period.

HOW WILL I BE ASSESSED?

Assessment is undertaken in a variety of ways, including practical tasks, oral questions and workbook assignments. A flexible approach is taken to ensure that assessment is fair for all participants.

CAN MY CURRENT SKILLS BE RECOGNISED?

There are different terms used to refer to the recognition of an individual's learning and skills.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a form of assessment used to determine whether a person has achieved through formal or informal learning and experience, any of required competencies of the course.

It is the recognition of competencies acquired and held through prior learning, formal training, work experience or life experience. It is the equivalent to assessment against a unit of competency.

Credit Transfer assesses the initial course or subject that an individual is using to claim access to, or the award of credit in, a destination course. The assessment determines the extent to which the clients initial course or subject is equivalent to the required learning outcomes, competency outcomes, or standards in a qualification. This may include credit transfer based on formal learning that is outside the AQF.

A copy of MADEC's RPL Guide is available from our campus or on our website www.madec.edu.au

WHAT FACILITIES ARE AVAILABLE?

MADEC has a range of facilities including access to library material, computer and internet resources. These facilities are available for all students including off-campus and trainees. Access is available by contacting your nominated trainer.
